Re: Need typewriter in the Law library!!

Dear Lt., Mr. Teacher:

I am writing you this cap-out in regards of the plight that's hindering me from appropriately, and effectively addressing my open legal issues in court, due to not having adequate legal materials in the Law library, primarily, a typewriter!

See, from what I understand there are electrical typewriters in every unit in population. I fail to understand the rationale for denying the inmates a typewriter in the Law library, especially when you have a (note) for staff on the Law library door to search inmates upon leaving the law library, and inventory equipment!!

Re: Requesting Law Library to issue Court Order!

To whom it may concern:

I would immensely appreciate being placed in the law library on the next available opening.

I thank you in advance for your time and assistance!

Sincerely,

Mr. Washington J.

Part A- INMATE REQUEST

Mr. Yates, first and foremost. I feel that it is imperative to address my issue at this level opposed to a BP, due to the perpetual onslaught of retaliation and harassment by your SHU staff for complaining about staff misconduct and the abuse of their authority (under color of law.) I have spoken to Lt. J. Incher on several occasions to no avail! On 11.12.04, and 11.14.04 I was denied REC for no apparent reason other than the rec officer Petty didn't want to finish the last cell. Officer Mr. Ward. There appears to be this underhand-unwritten policy of staff sticking together even when they're wrong in your SHU under certain supervisors that seriously needs to be addressed! How is it that these same officers can work in the year after year with their tactics under certain supervisors! Relief sought. Immediate transfer!
